

ZOMBA DIOCESE

INVITATION FOR BIDS TO PROCURE ASSORTED MATERIALS (RE-ADVERTISEMENT)

The Catholic Development Commission in Malawi (CADECOM) is a relief and development arm of the Catholic Church. It aims to create awareness and empower disadvantaged men, women, and youth at all levels to undertake development that is integral, gender-sensitive, environmentally sustainable, and promotes justice, human dignity, and self-reliance through active participation of the people themselves so that they take responsibility for their destiny. Zomba CADECOM, with funding from the Norwegian Church Aid (NCA) and Danish Church Aid (DCA), is implementing the Faith4Forest Project - Faith-Based Forest Recovery and Livelihoods Development Project in Zomba District, Traditional Authority (TA) Nwambo. The goal of this initiative is to restore degraded forests, alleviate poverty, and enhance climate resilience through inclusive and faith-inspired interventions.
